Cold Water Paint

A SUBSTITUTE FOR OIL PAINT AND WHITEWASH.

AN EXCELLENT FIRE RETARDANT AND DISINFECTANT.

INDURINE

(TRADE MARK)

Especially Designed For Inside Work on Factories and Public Buildings

It is a dry powder which can be prepared for use by simply stirring in COLD WATER and can be applied by anyone and will always produce good work.

It is VERY WHITE, extremely reflective and hardens on a wall like stone.

It will last for years, and is unaffected by gases.

One coat covers better than two coats of oil paint or whitewash.

It can be used on any surface and for all classes of work, even for the finest decorating.

It will not rub, scale or crack, nor will it soften with age or discolor.

It will not set in the mixing vessel, in fact it improves by standing a few days.

It can be used to good advantage over old whitewash without scraping.

IT DRIES OUT WHITE AFTER BEING WET.

It is cheaper than whitewash, durability considered.

Is supplied in barrels from 300 to 400 lbs., also in boxes of 100, 50 and 25 pounds.

A YOUNG RASCAL.

He Steals Money From His Mother and Has a Good Time

A ten-year old lad named Charlie Young is a prisoner at the Police Station. He is charged with the larceny of $30, the property of his mother. On Saturday last the mother with some friends went out in the country for a two days' visit, leaving Charlie to mind the house. The lad thought this a fine opportunity to have a good time also. He began rummaging about the house to discover the wherewithal to have the time with. During the hunt he found two ten dollar gold pieces and a ten-dollar greenback. He immediately set out and found two young friends of his, and the three came into town from Liliha street. They made for a store and bought two velocipedes, Charlie appropriating one for himself and giving the other to one of his companions. The trio returned to Liliha street and one of the boys, a half-caste Chinese, was sent to change the greenback. A Chinese store was the next place visited and John was surprised at the lavish display of wealth. Still it didn't matter to him whether it was ill-gotten or not. Bottles of soda water and ginger ale and candies were bought and the boys had a good time.

On Sunday they took the tramcar and went out to Waikiki, where they had another picnic. In the evening the mother returned and going to the place where she had hid the money found it missing. She reported the loss to the police and on Monday morning Charlie was arrested. The little fellow confessed and taking Special Hammer into the backyard showed him where a velocipede was hidden. The wheel was hidden under a pile of brush.

WANTS TO RECOVER.

A Fireman Brings Suit Against an Apprentice Boy.

A somewhat peculiar civil suit will come up in the District Court on Friday afternoon. The fireman at the Honolulu Iron Works has brought suit against one of the apprentice boys employed there for the recovery of $28, money claimed to have been loaned. The defendant in the case tells a different story altogether. The money he said had been handed him to give his sister, with whom the plaintiff was quite intimate. The fireman gave the boy $10 first and later the $18. The money was handed over by him as instructed. It is the talk among some of the employees at the foundry, and the fireman's action in prosecuting the boy is condemned.

GEORGE LYCURGUS DENIES.

He Is Mad About a Report That He was Guilty.

George Lycurgus, who was in Oahu Jail for 51 days, was seen by a BULLETIN reporter to-day. He said the Government had nothing whatever to lay to his charge, and he is indignant at a report made in one of the papers concerning him. The report was in effect that he wanted to leave the country, but the Government having use for him here would not allow him to depart. Mr. Lycurgus says that he arranged to leave by the steamer Alameda for a business trip to the Coast, but his arrest and incarceration prevented his purpose. As he has important business connections on the Coast, such a report as that in question is liable to do him considerable injury.

COMING TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

Philadelphia Officers Will Help—Town Team Formed.

At a meeting of the tennis players at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday evening it was decided to have a tournament on April 13, the entries to be at $1 and close March 31. Entries will be received at the bookstore of T. G. Thrum. A committee has been appointed who will have charge of the tournament and the selecting of a suitable court. Some of the officers of the U. S. S. Philadelphia have signified a willingness to take part in the tournament.

After the meeting the local players organized into a tennis club and will begin practice immediately.

SUSPENDED SENTENCES.

Only One Out of Thirty-one to Stay in Jail

Sentences have been announced in the following cases: John Awa, Henry Rogers, Pabukoa, Kapuna, William Ohi, J. Kama, J. Kubalashiwa and David K. Koa. All but Koa pleaded guilty on being arraigned.

All were sentenced by the Military Commission to be imprisoned at hard labor five years and to pay a fine of $5000. The fine was remitted in each case by President Dole, and the sentences were also suspended in the cases of all excepting Koa, who stood trial and stays in jail.

Sentences are also announced in the following cases: George Townsend, Charles Warren, Charles Bartow, Sam Pua Mio, Bill Ihu, Robert Hakuole Sylva, Kahimalani, Joseph Ahia, Keohi Paoao, Solomon Kupihea, Kawika, Kalua, Sam Kia, Sam Kanahole, Kawelo, Kauli, Naaieono, Limahopi, Kiui, Kaohimannu, Sam Keanu, William Olepau and Niolo.

All are sentenced to imprisonment for five years and to pay a fine of $5000. President Dole remits the fine and suspends the sentence in each case. All had been used as witnesses for the Government except William Olepau and Niolo.

ANOTHER PRESENT.

Jailor Low the Owner of a Valuable Bay Mare.

James A. Low, jailor at Oahu Prison, was the recipient of a valuable present yesterday. T. P. Cummins in a short note made Mr. Low the owner of the bay mare he has been driving during the past few weeks. The present is made for the very kind attention Mr. Low paid J. A. Cummins, father of the donor, during the time he was imprisoned in Oahu Jail. The animal is a fast trotter and comes from a good pedigree.

Mr. Low is naturally proud of the acquisition to his menage. He thanked the donor and hoped that on some future date he would be able to reciprocate in some substantial manner.

ESCAPED REBELS.

Two Said to Have Gone to Molokai in a Boat.

Daniel Awaawa, a native who is suspected as having been with the rebels during the rebellion, is being looked for. A South Sea Islander in the employ of J. J. Williams the photographer states he saw Daniel with another stout native leave in a boat for Molokai. The men had musical instruments, such as a guitar and a violin, with them and seemed to be well provisioned. The boat he believes belongs to a man named Kahana. The men told the South Sea Islander that they were bound for Molokai. The man has been summoned by Senior Captain Parker to tell what he knows of the men's departure.

Common Sense

Should be used in attempting to cure that very disagreeable disease, catarrh. As catarrh originates in impurities in the blood, local applications can do no permanent good. The common sense method of treatment is to purify the blood, and for this purpose there is no preparation superior to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Pills cure constipation by restoring peristaltic action of the alimentary canal.

A Coming Visitor.

At the meeting of the Honolulu Teachers' Association last night, Prof. Hosmer announced that Prof. B. G. Northrup, State Superintendent of Education for Connecticut, would shortly visit Honolulu. As he was a popular speaker on general subjects, as well as an authority on education, the public might expect some treats on the platform from him.

Taken the Oath.

The following are the latest to take the oath to the Constitution: Luther Kaihuma, A. P. Kaihuma, Jacob Kumalae, D. P. Panee, Henry J. Harrison, J. H. Taylor, Hawaiian; J. A. Nunes, Portuguese.
